Organization and Industry to Collaborate:

1) Career College Bhopal

We the "Career Group of Institutions under the aegis of Career society" is a pioneer in the field of education meaningfully engaged in imparting knowledge to students as well as preparing them for their successful career. Career College is affiliated to Barkatullah University, Bhopal and is accredited A+ by NAAC Bengaluru. We are conducting professionally recognized and career oriented courses in the fields of life sciences, computers, IT, management, commerce, library science, law physiotherapy, paramedical sciences etc.

Department of Life Science, Career College, Bhopal is a well facilitated department and is running PG courses in Biotechnology, Microbiology, Botany, Zoology and Chemistry since 1998. Department has also been recognized as Research Centre by Barkatullah University, Bhopal.

2) Bio Nutrients India Pvt. Ltd

Bio Nutrients India Pvt. Ltd. has established a state of the art manufacturing facility within house quality lab at Plot no.10, Sector-B, Mandideep Industrial Area, Dist. Raipur to Manufacture Spray Dried Soya Milk Powder. Consumer attitudes monitor and human dietary protein requirement by the FAO/WHO/UNU has revealed a preference for Soya Protein as a more healthful ingredient in comparison to animal protein in the form of meat and dairy products.

Besides being highly nutritious, researchers have found that the Soyafood has numerous health benefits when consumed. Soyafoods are an excellent source of digestible protein. While rich in vitamins (Vitamin A, E, K and some Vitamin B) and minerals (Potassium, iron, zinc and phosphorous), the soyabean is low in saturated fatty acids, with 60% of the unsaturated fat content consisting of linoleic acid linolenic acid, both known to promote cardiovascular health. The soyabean contains no Cholesterol, Soyafoods are also lactose free, which is of great benefit to the lactose intolerant consumer.

Career College Bhopal and Bio Nutrients India Pvt. Ltd have common aim to contribute to society by skilling the youth. They propose to do this via on- job trainings, lectures, internships, career guidance, workshops, projects. Both understand that the skills acquired by students of Biotechnology and Biochemistry will be useful. They also believe that there is a skill gap in this area, so the potential for employment and self-employment is good. Hence it gives a concrete ground for Career College, Bhopal and Bio Nutrients India Pvt. Ltd to work in collaboration.

Therefore, both have decided to sign an agreement in form of MOU (Memorandum of Understanding). It defines the framework under the following heads:

A. Aim: Career College Bhopal and Bio Nutrients India Pvt. Ltd. Bhopal agree to work for academics/professional enhancement in collaboration on the basis of mutual agreement.
